[No. 5234.]

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended
Hahn's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS
THIS Medicine has been attended th a degree of success highly gratifying the inventor's feelings in several parts the West Indies and in the Southern Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak in favour of a medicine than commons of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously presented as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, at in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases seemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly safe, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.
They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the system—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance; they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

stinate coughs, asthmas, sore throats, cacovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

ent cure of

and chronic rheumatism, gout, rheumatic palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, rashes, bruises, pain in the face and neck, &c. &c.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.
Warranted an infallible remedy at once application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaster.

An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing their root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion.
So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflammatory redness, scurfs, tetter, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water, A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of nature weakness, or of accident.

Tooth Ache Drops.

gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

gro man JOHN, on JOHN ALLEN, complexion, but the complete negrimou and nose—has a small scar on one of his cheeks—has lately had a sore on which leg has the appearance of being

Fan-Sash Making.

METAL FAN-SASHES, of various descriptions, will be made by the subscriber, at his shop, lower end of Duke street. The want of a Metal Fan-Sash Manufacture in Alexandria, has hitherto been severely felt by builders and others, who have been compelled to make use of wood, which is neither elegant nor durable. The various forms into which the metal can be shaped have given it a decided superiority, and the difference in the price is very trifling. The subscriber has been at considerable expence in procuring the necessary preparations, and relies on public enterprise for success in the undertaking.

Gentlemen in the country, by sending the dimensions of their sashes, can have them made at the same price as in town.

Proposals.
FOR Publishing by Subscription, and now ready for the press, a series of historical volumes, which when finished will assume the title of Universal History Americanised; Or, an historical view of Europe, Asia, Africa and America, from the earliest records to the nineteenth century—with a particular reference to the state of society, literature, religion, and form of government in the United States of America.

BY DAVID RAMSAY, M. D.
"Life is so short and time so valuable, that it were happy for us if all great works were reduced to their quintessence."

PROSPECTUS.
ASIA.
The Asiatic part of this work contains a general view of the antediluvians—of the general deluge—of the re-settlement of the Globe after that great event—of the primitive postdiluvian nations which were formed in Asia, the cradle of the world. Their various ramifications; revolutions, and of the general course of Empire.

AFRICA.
The African part, contains a concise history of Egypt, Carthage, Numidia; Mauritania, Abyssinia, of the Piratical States, and the Hottentots, with a grouped view of its uncivilized settlements.

EUROPE.
The European part, contains the history of Greece and Rome, from their origin to their dissolution—of the various nations which were conquered by them—and of the nations by which the Romans themselves were finally conquered, and of the nations which were formed from the fragments of the Roman Empire, and the various revolutions of the latter, together with a view of the nations which never were subjected to the Romans.

AMERICA.
The American part, contains a general history of the Western continent, under the heads of Free, European, and Aboriginal or unconquered America. The first contains a history of the United States, from their first settlement as English Colonies, till the present time.—
The second, of all parts dependant on Europe.—And the third, of all that are still owned by the Aborigines.

It is expected that the whole will be comprised in 10 or 12 octavo volumes; of between four and five hundred pages each—to be printed in Philadelphia, on good paper and fair types, for 25 1-3 per volume, in sheep binding, or 24 1-3 Calf Gilt, to be paid for on delivery.

AUTHORITIES.

This work has been in contemplation upwards of 40 years. The project of it was conceived in 1786, on reading the Universal History, then recently edited in 60 volumes, by a society of gentlemen in England. The original idea of extracting the quintessence of that voluminous work, which contained the most complete system of history the world had then seen, has ever since been enlarging and improving by an attentive perusal of the histories written by Robertson, Hume, Gibbon, and other modern authors—of the Asiatic researches—of the works of Sir William Jones, and other learned Orientalists—the publications of intelligent travellers, who, in the course of the last half century have explored almost every region of the Globe. These collectively have thrown a blaze of light on countries comparatively unknown, and on portions both of ancient and modern history which were confused and obscure at the period when the writers of the Universal History published their work. The arrangement of materials collected from these sources commenced in the year 1780; when, in consequence of the surrender of Charleston to Sir Henry Clinton, the author was suddenly released from a sea of business and sent as a prisoner of war to the British Garrison then in St. Augustine, and there confined for eleven months, without any peculiar employment. Steady progress has been made for the last ten years in correcting and transcribing the work for publication.

UNITED STATES.

The History of the United States is given at full length—that of foreign countries is more or less expended or contracted in proportion to the intrinsic importance of each—its tendency to illustrate portions of Holy Writ—the Greek and Latin Classics—and also in proportion to its connexion with the U. States, or as furnishing useful practical information to its citizens, or as the paternal soil of their ancestors.

The above sketch of the nature and objects of this immense work, which has occupied the attention of the Author for upwards of 40 years, was found among his papers, and is now given to the public in his own words. Since that period, a few chapters, have been added by the Reverend SAMUEL STANHOPE SMITH, which brings it down to the close of the last war.

The publication commences with a third impression of the History of the U.
States, in three volumes, which is all that has ever appeared. The whole will not be delivered under 15 or 20 months. It is proper to state, that the gentlemen who have the direction of it are neither booksellers nor printers, and receive no pecuniary consideration for their trouble —but are willing to make the necessary advances to carry it into execution provided the sale is warranted by public patronage. The profits arising are to be appropriated for the support and education of his children; four of each sex: so that its success is a matter of deep importance.

REFLECTIONS ON THE WESTERN COUNTRY.

Mr. Printey.

To a superficial observer, or one too indolent for reflection, it might seem that the western country was coeval with the eastern, or, in other words, that, on rising out of the confused mass of chaos, which we will, here, suppose to be the original state of the universe, that the co-apation of particles were simultaneous. As no ill can result from spending a few thoughts on a subject which cannot be fully demonstrated, I will, here, endeavor to give my ideas on this abstruse subject.

We will suppose that before order took place on our globe, the elements were confusedly mixed together, till their specific gravities brought each to their natural distances from the centre—then, water, as having the least weight, except air, covered the whole face of the earth; the earth's diurnal, as well as annual motion, must have then, as well as at present, caused undulations in the atmosphere; these with the other natural and occasional causes of rarefaction and condensations of the air, must have occasioned violent winds and hurricanes, which, together with their own element, affected that next below,—the water; which, by this means was thrown into great agitation, and made to assume a regular current from east to west. This could not but affect the more solid strata underneath, and currents of sand were made to accompany those of the water, till these, meeting with obstructions formed an obstacle to the passage of that which next followed, and additional accumulations raised it in places above the surface of the sea.

Let us suppose that the first parts which emerged from the ocean, in North America, to be the tops of the Alleghany and Rocky mountains.—The first would receive fresh accumulations by the current from the east, and the latter would be increased by the eddies of the west—whilst the middle space would rest in a state of quiescence, by being less capable of being acted on by the wind, from its comparatively contracted boundary.—To the east and west imperceptible advances were made into the dominions of Neptune, who was making up in depth what he lost in breadth. Rivers arose from the summit of the mountains, and the vivifying rays of the sun clothed their sides with vegetation, which making an annual deposit, fertilized the soil for its future cultivation. By viewing the face of the country from the sea shore to the mountains, it will naturally lead us to that conclusion. Near the sea, and for some distance back, the land is formed nearly entire of sand, with very little of a vegetable deposit, as though it had lately emerged from the water. As you travel west, the vegetable and animal deposit becomes more perceptible, and the so-lacious earth, is in a great measure exchanged for the alluminous and carbonaceous, and is of course more congenial to the culture of grain. When you approach the mountains, you find that by long exposure, the once soft clay is hardened into rock, by attracting and mixing with the carbonic acid of the atmosphere. Yet the evidence of its emerging from the sea still remains, by the quantity of marine, crustaceous deposits, which are every where to be found in the body and crevices of rocks, on the sides and tops of the highest mountains.

You will always observe the mountains running parallel with the continent, and nearly from north to south. The Alleghany being flat on its top, and some considerable distance over; then as it was falling off, all at once, at the Laurel hill, would seem to favor my argument of its being one of the original scites; for did it form but a narrow ridge on the top, it would have been liable to be broken down by the violence of the waves and want of resistance to the west. But it is different with the mountains to the east of this; having the Alleghany for a prop, they were washed up to narrow ridges on the top, and made prisoner of part of the watery element between them and the next adjoining abutment, which through time wore a passage through its prison walls, and formed what we now call the beds of rivers, their falls, cataracts, &c. This is further confirmed by the east sides of the mountains being nearly always more sloping than the west—the quiet state in which the water rested there, did not so much favor a gradual accumulation as the boisterous dashing of the waves to the east—and as the water found its passage, by wearing away channels through the mountains, it receded quietly, without occasioning other undulations than were made by the suction towards the new channel. If exceptions be found to this, it may be supposed to be owing to several inland seas existing at the same time, which, all in like manner, had the impetuosity of their waves broken by the land which environed them on both sides. This theory will hold good as to the rocky mountains to the west. We cannot suppose that eddies, which take in but a small compass of ocean, could make as rapid accumulations of earth as could be formed by a direct current—therefore the mountains to the west approach near to the margin of the Pacific.

What I have said of North, will be equally applicable to South America—and I think they were once connected by a wider tract of country than the isthmus of Darien, and had their intermediate sea in common. The West India islands, or what are now the West Indies, being a continuation of, and connection between the Alleghany and Andes; till some great convulsion of nature sunk them all but their highest summits, which now project out of the sea in all the ragged deformity, or if you will, romantic grandeur of mountains tops. Or, another conjecture may be risked here, as probable conjecture is all that we can advance on this head. The trade winds, which occasioned a correspondent current in the sea, might have worn away the soil on the eastern side of the mountains, at this part; the imprisoned ocean, anxious to find its level, there wore its way from the west, and the long parted brothers again mutually embraced. One, or perhaps both of these causes, must have contributed to the draining of the western country, or that tract of land between the two first named ledges of mountains.

I do not suppose the whole of the land to be at once drained of its water, but to be done gradually as resistances were worn away. In fact, a great deal is yet to be done—the immense lakes which bind us to the north and north-east, are in time to be drained by the same gradual process, and are now in places, making visible advances that way.

Here, then, nature assumed a different aspect, and a new element assumed the ascendancy. Rivers had to make for themselves channels, and wind, in serpentine directions, through immense fields of mud; incredible marine and vegetable putrefaction took place, which must have vitiated the air to a great distance—till the invigorating influence of the sun, aided in producing a new coat of verdure, which here found a more congenial soil, than it had in the barren sand to the east of the mountains.—According to this theory, the fertility of the western country may be accounted for. As mentioned before, the inland sea must have been in a measurably quiescent state—this occasioned an increased deposition of all the saline and earthy particles which might have come into contact with the water, which covered its bottom with mud in the place of sand, and must have multiplied to an amazing degree the stock of marine animals, which there left their putrid bodies when the water receded. Together with these, the sea, owing to its want of motion, must, in its shallowest places, have produced a kind of vegetation peculiar to itself, as we frequently observe in somewhat similar situations, in rivers that have no great rapidity. All these causes tended to cover the newly made land with a manure, capable of supporting any vegetable growth, and in some places to a depth which renders the soil inexhaustible.

What exceptions there are to this theory, as a general one for the country west of the Alleghany and east of the latter, where the land is higher and more broken; consequently must have emerged from the water sooner, before the full deposit was completed, and most probably had its primordial particles of a different contexture from that of the other parts in the same valley.

From what has been said, we may presume that the sea is constantly receding from the land, and becoming more contracted in its boundary; but, at the same time, deepening its bed—that there are not, as some have supposed, a gradual diminution of water, which would be contrary to that harmony which we see prevailing through the universe, and contrary to any chemical analysis with which we are acquainted; but that, by natural laws, which to some might appear gratuitous, one element gives way to another, till the watery one, too much restricted in surface, finds its way through the centre of the globe, and destroys the balance of continents which before existed; when all are once more immersed, and universal chaos again prevails. Here we might again go round with the routine of new formation, and harmony arising out of confusion; but my readers, no doubt, think that I have indulged fully long in conjecture.

LATEST FROM ENGLAND.

Last evening arrived the fast sailing ship Hercules, Capt. Macey, 27 days from Liverpool. By this arrival we have received London papers to the 16th of April and Liverpool to the 18th, with Lloyd's List, and General Shipping and Commercial List to the 16th. From these we have made copious extracts for this evening's Commercial Advertiser.

We refer our readers to a subsequent column, for the new plan of finance, which we copy from the Courier of April 15.

Letters from Rome state, that in the concordat concluded between the Holy See and Naples, among many regulations of a very liberal description, there is one for securing the complete toleration of the Protestant Religion.

From the London Gazette, of March 31st, it appears that his Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of his majesty, to approve of Joel Hart, Esq. as consul at Leith, for the United States.

An attempt has been made to assassinate Lord Palmerston, the secretary of war, by a lieutenant named David Davis.

On the 7th of April the Duke of Wellington announced to the ministers of the allied powers, the rate [tax] which he had determined for the definitive arrangement of the liquidation claims: they are settled at eight millions and a half of roubles, or about 170 millions of livres.

On the 8th of April, the marriage of her Royal Highness the Princess Elizabeth, with Prince Philip Augustus Frederick, took place at the Queen's palace.

At the fifth anniversary of the Church Missionary Society, held at Bristol in April last, one of the gentlemen who addressed the meeting, stated "that he had spent the evening, and part of that morning, at the bed-side of the celebrated HANNAH MORE, to whom the obligations of this age and posterity are great; he found her on a bed of sickness, but surrounded with her Saviour's presence, enjoying an inward peace, which could only be derived from the book of God. She commissioned him to be her almoner upon the altar of that Society, wishing them God speed."

Price of American Stocks, on the 11th of April.

3 per cents 71, 71½; new loan, 6 per cents 103½ a 103—7 per cents 109½ a 110; bank shares 132.

Prices of British Stocks, April 15.

3 per cent reduced 81 1/4 a 80 1/4; 3 per cent consols 81 5/8; 4 per cent consols 98 1/8, 7 7/8, 81 1/8; consols for acc. 81 1/2, 2 3/8, 1 1/8.

Prices at Liverpool, on the 17th April.

Cotton, uplands, ls. 8d. a la. 10d.—Sea Island, fine, ss. 2d. a 3s. 6d.; flour 54 a 56s.

The average of wheat by returns of the second week, received at Liverpool on the morning of the 18th, was 88s. 10d. per quarter—one shilling higher than the average of the preceding week.

Corn Exchange, April 15.—Several cargoes of foreign wheat have arrived since Monday, which occasioned dull sale for that article, and what was disposed of was at a decline of two shillings per quarter.

We have received from our London correspondent, "the proposed new custom house duties," which, at the date of our letter, April 14, was in progress through both houses of parliament. Its great length prevents our publishing it this day. Merchants can examine it at our office.

From the London New Price Current of April 14.

LONDON MARKETS.

Cotton.—There has been an extensive demand for cotton, especially towards the close of the week; the request has been particularly for Pernambuco and Surat cotton. The principal sales of the latter were at prices 1 2d to 3 4d per lb. higher than they might have been purchased the previous week. The sales were—1,900 Pernams, 2s 1 1/2d to 2s 1 1/2d principally at 2s 1d to 2s 1 1/4d; 50 Maranham, 2s; a few loweds, 2 1/2d; Sea Islands, 2 1/2d; 700 Smyrnas, taken on speculation, at 17 1/2d; and 400 Bengals were purchased at 10 1/4d to 11 3/4d; 1,800 Surats, 13 1/2d to 16 3/4d.

Yesterday and this forenoon the enquiries after cotton were very extensive, but the holders are now asking a considerable advance, on account of the favorable reports from Liverpool, which has impeded sales of the prices of the last week; there are extensive purchases both of Pernambuco and Surat Cotton, but none are offering at the former currency.

Irish Provisions, &c.—Prime Mess Beef, being in short supply, is much sought after by the trade. The arrivals of Pork are rather extensive; the late prices are however maintained. Bacon is heavy. There has been much fluctuation this week in the prices of Butter; the prices are nearly nominal on account of another extensive public sale being advertised for Thursday next.

Public Sale of Provisions, &c.—300 casks Friesland Butter, 107 to 110s each landed, 141 firkins French, 88 to 87s. do. 50 bales scalded. Waterford bacon, 72s. 6d to 73s.

Corn.—There was a small supply of English wheat in yesterday's market; the arrivals of foreign were not extensive, owing to the adverse winds; the country buyers came freely forward, and the fine of both English and Foreign Wheat sold readily, recovering the depression of 2s which had been submitted to on Friday last; and the general opinion in the market was, that the next arrivals would meet a ready sale, if they proved to be of good quality and fine condition. There was a very moderate supply of English Barley, and little Foreign on sale, yet the market was exceedingly heavy, at the decline of 2s. on every description; the request for shipping was considerable, but the purchasers could not give the market prices for grinding Barley. The supply of Oats was inconsiderable; the sales were lively, yet no advance could be obtained. Beans were in request at an improvement of 2s; the quantity at market was inadequate to the demand. Grey Peas and Boiler supported the late currency. The imports of clover seed from Holland and Germany were extensive, which added to the lateness of the season, occasioned a depression of 15s to 18s per cwt. and the market was heavy at the decline; in the red, there was no alteration.

Tobacco.—The demand for tobacco has been rather limited, yet the holders continue sanguine of obtaining higher prices; the purchases since our last exceed 300 hhds; dry Virginias 8 5/8d a parcel of Strips realizing 12d.

Rice.—There continues considerable interest excited as to the proposed new duties on Carolina Rice; the supply in London is confined to one or two extensive holders, who refuse to sell Carolina under 49s to 50s. A public sale of 3048 bags East India was last week brought forward; some inferior was sold 22s 6d to 23s; the greater proportion was however withdrawn at 23s 6d to 24s.

Hemp, Flax and Tallow.—The prices of Hemp are advancing; a contract has been advertised, and from the limited stock on hand, a further improvement is anticipated. In Flax or Tallow there is no alteration.

From London Papers, received at the office of the Commercial Advertiser.

Mails from Hamburg and Flanders arrived to-day. An article from Algiers, dated the 27th of February, represents that seat of barbarity and oppression as suffering most severely from the ravages of the plague. We select the following articles from the Hamburg papers.

Hamburg, March 26.
We have received the following letter from Algiers, by way of Marseilles:—

Algiers, Feb. 25.
The state of things here become worse and more dreadful every day. The plague continues to rage in a terrible manner. This distemper, of which about 50 persons die daily in the city, lasts in general, about 24 hours, without having any previous indisposition, without having felt any symptoms of the disease; other persons frequently fall victims of death from the infective air, and the use of unwholesome food.—The plague rages also in the neighborhood of Algiers, and farther in the interior of the country. To this we may add a mortality among the cattle. Besides these dreadful scourges we have other sufferings.

"His Highness the Dey causes daily and without respect to persons, people to be arrested, executed or banished, and graciously seizes on their property."

"Every person is so terrified here, that people pretty openly express the wish that some foreign squadron would make its appearance, and some Christian power or other make itself master of this state of pirates."

"Of the militia the third part is killed, banished or is deserted; great discontent prevails among the remainder. The Dey, however, increases the number of his body guard by blacks, and has planted before his castle a strong line of 24 pounders, which command the city."

"Several magnificent buildings are erecting for the Dey and his family. In the midst of the general misery his highness frequently amuses himself with balls and causes the neighborhood of his palace to resound with music. The unhappy inhabitants, particularly the rich Jews, have been obliged to pay a contribution of 100,000 piastres, and twelve of the most beautiful girls; of the latter, some have, however, ransomed themselves for different sums, from 4000 to 8000 piastres."

"The squadron of corsairs which was out lately on a cruise, lies still dismantled in the harbor."

"Some of the principal Arabian tribes in the interior of the country are in a state of insurrection, and it is likely that others will follow their example, as the Algerine government is in want of means to reduce them to obedience.—May the insurrection extend hither!"

James Kennedy & Son,

RESPECTFULLY inform the public that they have just received from

LEE'S MEDICINE STORE,

No. 46, Maiden lane, New-York, a fresh supply of the following valuable MEDICINES:

Hamilton's Worm-destroying Lozenges.

Which have within sixteen years past cured an immense number of persons of both sexes of every age and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from WORMS, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or griping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humors and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known.

Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds viz.—The Terebrator or large round worm; the Ascarides or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitaria or short flat white worms; and lastly, the Tenia or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and fetid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; pains in the head and thighs and lowness of spirits; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent "the vomiting and purging of children"—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

The Restorative Powder for the Teeth and Gums.

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS and MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended.

HAHN'S ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age. They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.
